

Food Safety Training Program

In partnership with

The Australian Institute of Food Safety

AIFS is Australia's leading provider of food safety education and training.

Each year we help thousands of Australian organisations protect their customers and maintain food safety compliance.

In addition, for every course enrolment, we help to feed up to 2 people in need through our partnership with OzHarvest.

Food Safety courses delivered by the Australian Institute of Food Safety are:

- ✓ Nationally Recognised
- ✓ Accepted by Health Inspectors
- ✓ Food Safety Audit Compliant

Most courses can be completed online in just a few hours and include two years of AIFS membership.
